- 27.1 A member is not eligible for election to the Committee unless the Secretary receives a written nomination for that member fourteen (14) prior to the date fixed for the Annual General Meeting each year.
- 27.2 The nomination must be signed by:
 - 27.2.1 the nominator and a seconder; and
 - 27.2.2 the nominee to signify his or her willingness to stand for election.
- 27.3 A person who is eligible for election or re-election under this clause may:
 - 27.3.1 propose or second himself or herself for election or re-election; and
 - 27.3.2 vote for himself or herself.
- 27.4 Only two members from the same family may be on the Committee at any one time.

28 RETIREMENT OF COMMITTEE MEMBERS

- 28.1 A committee member holds office until the next annual general meeting unless the member vacates the office under clause 31 or is removed under clause 32.
- 28.2 Subject to sub-clause 28.3, at an annual general meeting the office of each committee member becomes vacant and elections for a new Committee must be held.
- 28.3 The President of the outgoing Committee must preside at the annual general meeting until a new member is elected as President.
- 28.4 Members may serve consecutive terms on the Committee.

29 ELECTION BY DEFAULT

- 29.1 If the number of persons nominated for election to the Committee under clause 27 does not exceed the number of vacancies to be filled, the President must declare the persons to be duly elected as members of the Committee at the annual general meeting.
- 29.2 If vacancies remain on the Committee after the declaration under sub-clause 29.1, additional nominations of committee members may be accepted from the floor of the annual general meeting.
- 29.3 If the nominations from the floor do not exceed the number of remaining vacancies, the President must declare those persons to be duly elected as members of the Committee.

CONSTITUTION

29.4 If the nomination from the floor are less than the number of of remaining vacancies, the unfilled vacancies are taken to be casual vacancies and must be filled by the new Committee in accordance with clause 33.

30 ELECTION BY BALLOT

30.1 If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies on the Committee, ballots for those positions must be conducted.

30.2 The ballot shall be conducted at the annual general meeting of The Cat Association of the Northern Territory (Inc). Two impartial scrutineers shall be elected to oversight the counting of the ballot. Where a tied vote occurs the ballot will be re-conducted till a decision is obtained.
